T·I·E·R

Tiered Interventions Using Evidence-Based Research

Academics Resources

Click any title to be directed to the resource.

COVID-19 FAQ: Guiding Questions for Educators Providing Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) Intervention

This resource includes guiding questions for educators implementing MTSS and additional information to use when providing academic and behavioral supports.

Designing and Delivering Intervention for Students With Severe and Persistent Academic Needs

This resource includes a toolkit with activities and resources to assist practitioners in designing and delivering intensive interventions in reading and mathematics for K–12 students with significant learning difficulties and disabilities.

Explicit Instruction Course

This resource focuses on enhancing educators' skills in using explicit instruction.

Supporting Students' Foundational Reading Skills

This resource includes a virtual lesson example.

Taxonomy of Intensity Intervention

This resource includes support for educators in evaluating and building intervention intensity in academics.

Texas Home Learning

This resource includes a freely accessible, optional, aligned suite of resources that educators can use to support learning in a remote environment.

TEA — Texas Education Agency

The Meadows Center FOR PREVENTING EDUCATIONAL RISK

TEXAS — The University of Texas at Austin